

ARE YOU IN A DISPUTE?

HAVE YOU CONSIDERED MEDIATION?

If you need assistance resolving a dispute, a trained Mediator may be able to assist

What is mediation?

Mediators don't take sides

Listens to all parties

Mediation helps people reach an agreement

Mediation helps resolve issues out of court

The Mediation process is designed to meet your unique situation

Where someone may struggle with communicating

For families where there's an imbalance of power or safety concerns

Assistance welcomed from a family member, friend, support person or lawyer

Different structure / process for different situations

For all types of disputes

Matrimonial

Business

Family

Estates

Effectiveness

Legally binding once signed

75%

of mediations resolve all issues

Cost

$ 40,000

Court (2 day trial)

$ 0

Free (plus nominal fee for Independent Legal Advice)

"Bandaging the wounds"

Mediation is less stressful than going to court

Mediation can repair damaged relationships

Mediation rebuilds civility in families

Mediation is confidential and safe

The Process

- ✓ Contact your Regional Conciliation and Arbitration Board (RCAB) Chairman
- ✓ Case assigned to a Mediator or co-Mediators
- ✓ Mediation pre-meeting with each party
- ✓ Mediation begins

Learn more or ask for assistance from CAB

CABCanada.org

Call your local RCAB

British Columbia
Phone: 604-438-4010 ext. 631

Prairies
Phone: 403-215-6200 ext. 7321

Edmonton
Phone: 780-461-2000 ext. 7

Ontario (including Ottawa)
Phone: 416-751-4001 ext. 607

Québec & Maritimes
Phone: 514-738-8866 ext. 300